Hormel Foundation Announces Contributions Exceeding $4.7 Million

AUSTIN, Minn. (Nov. 22, 2010) — The Hormel Foundation recently approved more than $4.7 million in contributions for 2011. Since inception, the Foundation has contributed in excess of $80 million to the Austin area.

The University of Minnesota's Hormel Institute is the principal recipient of The Hormel Foundation's contributions, as established in 1942 by an agreement between the board of regents of the University of Minnesota and The Hormel Foundation. Funds received by The Hormel Institute are used to conduct research and education in the biological sciences. Institute research projects currently relate to heart disease, cancer, diabetes and obesity. The Institute derives most of its operating budget through grants and contracts from the National Institute of Health and other agencies.

In addition to The Hormel Institute, grants were approved for the benefit of the following Austin area organizations:

- American Red Cross – Mower County Chapter
- Austin Area Foundation
- ARC Mower County
- Austin SPAMTOWN Freedom Festival
- Austin Community Scholarship Committee
- Austin Fire Department
- Austin Medical Center
- Austin Public Library
- Austin Public Schools
- Cedar Valley Services Inc.
- Children's Dental Health Services
- City of Austin
- Girl Scout Council of River Trails Inc.
- Hormel Historic Home
- Jay C. Hormel Nature Center
- Mower Council for the Handicapped Inc.
- Mower Council Seniors, Inc.
- Mower County Mentoring Program
- Parenting Resource Center
- Salvation Army
- Twin Valley Boy Scout Council
- United Way of Mower County Inc.
- Wapiti Meadows Community Technologies and Services
- Welcome Center
- YMCA of Austin

The income from the gift of the Estate of the late Edna Denbow Schrafel is used partially to fund the grant to the Austin Public Schools. In addition, a portion of the Adelaide Holton estate was used towards an endowed professorship for the benefit of The Hormel Institute.

The Hormel Foundation also serves as trustee for the Geo. A. Hormel Testamentary Trust. The 2011 contribution budget for the Testamentary Trust is in the amount of $65,000. This Trust has contributed over $3 million to the Austin area since inception in 1946. The following Austin area organizations will benefit from the Testamentary Trust:
